

The Day the Crayons Quit

Children's Theater Camp :: June 19-24, 2017 :: 3-5 pm

Would you like to act in a real live play? Build the set? Learn all the behind-the-scenes tricks to creating a live performance? Little Players (A Part of Pierre Players) is having a theater camp to explore acting and other stage arts.

Based on the book "The Day the Crayons Quit" by Drew Daywalt, the camp involves four days games and activities based on theater skills. Participants will tie-die shirts, build a giant crayon box, write their own letters/scripts, create a mural based on their letters/scripts and prepare to present their letters to an audience.

Getting Ready

When: Monday – Friday
June 19-23, 3 to 5 p.m.

Where: Grand Opera House,
109 S. Pierre St

Performing

When: Saturday
June 24, 10:00 a.m.

Where: Steamboat Park
Amphitheater, Oahe Days Festival

Who

Boys and girls going into 3rd, 4th and 5th grade.

Cost is free, but space is limited.
Deadline is May 31, 2017.

Send the form below to Little Players, PO Box 933, Pierre, SD 57501.

For more information, contact info@littleplayers605.com

THE DAY THE CRAYONS QUIT

NAME: _____ AGE: _____

T-SHIRT SIZE: _____

PARENT/GUARDIAN: _____

PHONE: _____

EMAIL: _____

NOTES/ALLERGIES: _____

The Pierre School District and the Stanley County School District neither endorses nor sponsors the organization or activity represented in this document. The distribution of this material is provided as a community service.